About DPPA

The Delaware Public Purchasing Association (DPPA) officially became a NIGP chapter on February 15, 2000. The Chapter is made up of professional purchasers from state, county and town governmental agencies throughout the State of Delaware.

Our objectives are to promote and provide professional development in persons in the procurement, materials management or related field while maintaining high ethical standards.

DPPA is the 77th Chapter of the National Institute of Governmental Purchasing (NIGP) which consists of Chapters in every state throughout the country and are governed by the NIGP Code of Ethics.

It is very important for DPPA members to give back to our communities, therefore, we partner with several colleges and universities offering scholarships to students, many local charitable organizations throughout such as the Food Bank of Delaware, ASPCA and the Ministry of Giving. We also assist in school supply drives to assist students in Delaware, as well as, students overseas.
