new Constitution and Bylaws, or direct the Board of Directors to cause any provision of the Constitution and Bylaws to be altered, amended, repealed, or adopted. However, no provision of the Constitution and Bylaws to be amended would be inconsistent with the Chapter’s status as a non-profit corporation under the laws of the State of Arizona or be in conflict with NIGP, nor would infringe on the rights of a third party. All Amendments or changes to the Constitution and Bylaws are subject to approval by NIGP prior to adoption.

ARTICLE XII – SEVERABILITY

If any Section of the Constitution and Bylaws are found to be unjust or unconstitutional, it shall not affect any other portion except as amended under Article XI, Section 1.

ARTICLE XIII – DISSOLUTION

In the event the organization is dissolved, the organization shall, after satisfaction of all debts to NIGP and other debtors, transfer its remaining assets, including money, securities, documents, files, and other property, in whatever form, to NIGP National. All such assets will be held by NIGP in the event of reactivation of the Chapter.

Dissolution: Dissolution of a Chapter is accomplished by three-fourths (3/4) of the Chapter members eligible to vote and certification thereof to the National Board of Directors.
