

National Cooperative Procurement Partners (NCPD) is recognizing stars in public procurement who have gone "ABOVE & BEYOND" in their procurement role. With all that's happened in the past year, heroes in procurement -could be the Director, Buyer I or Stockroom Clerk - deserve recognition. Don't let the chance pass by to recognize a stellar person on your team.

To submit a nomination is easy! Please email Tammy Rimes, NCPD Executive Director with the deserving individual's name, email address and a few sentences about their stellar performance. Awardees will be showcased starting March 1st and every Monday throughout the month in the NCPD newsletter and website, as well as receive a NCPD "Let's Just Cooperate" t-shirt, gift certificate and other special awards.

Examples of ABOVE & BEYOND recognition:

- Special success story in addressing the COVID and social distancing challenges
- Taking on additional tasks and leadership responsibilities for special project
- Volunteering in event or activities to serve their community
- Serving in the military or guard to help with emergencies
- Solving a difficult problem with an outside of the box solution
- Serving in an unpaid role for a procurement Association
- Sharing knowledge and volunteering for industry training sessions and conferences
- Leadership and mentoring to create a stellar team environment that allows individuals to grow and succeed.
